

School of Humanities,
Centre for Research in Kent History and Archaeology
Study and Workshop Day

HOW THE GREAT WAR CHANGED KENT, 1914–1928

Saturday 23 MAY 2015, 9.30 to 17.00

Old Sessions House, Canterbury Christ Church University,
Canterbury campus

PROGRAMME

9.30–10.00 Registration and coffee

10.00–10.15 Welcome and Introduction

Dr Sheila Sweetinburgh

10.15–11.00 Lecture 1: The Roles and Experiences of Men and Women

Dr Martin Watts

11.00–12.15 Workshop 1: Looking at the Lives of Men and Women

Led by Dr Martin Watts

12.15–13.15 Lunch (make own arrangements)

13.15–13.45 Lecture 2: The Roles and Experiences of Children

Dr David Budgen

13.45–15.00 Workshop 2: Looking at the Lives of Children

Led by Dr David Budgen

15.00–15.15 Tea

15.15–15.45 Lecture 3: Memorialisation

Dr Andrew Palmer & Dr Sally Minogue

15.45–17.00 Workshops 3 & 4:

3. Bring along your artefacts and memories

4. The Great War and Poetry

Tickets: £18 (concessions £15 for OAPs and students)

Lunch not provided

Booking: Tickets available online through Canterbury Christ Church University:
<http://www.canterbury.ac.uk/shop/world-war-one-study-day>

