

GATEWAYS TO GERMAN & AUSTRIAN EXPERIENCES

Friday 20 March 2015, Canterbury Cathedral Lodge

- 9.10 Registration opens
9.30 Welcome and introduction to the Gateways to the First World War centre

Session 1: German & Austrian Experiences of the War I

- 9:40 Dr Alexander Watson (Goldsmiths, University of London) – Germany and Austria during the First World War
10.25 Professor David Welch (University of Kent) - German Propaganda and World War I'
11.10 Tea break
11.25 Professor Ulf Schmidt (University of Kent) - The Legacy of the First World War in Germany
12.10 Lunch

Session 2: Developing centenary projects

- 12.45 Sarah Wicks - The HLF First World War: Then & Now funding scheme
13.00 Judith Garfield - Eastside Community Heritage Project: Little Germany, Stratford & East London, 1914

Session 3: Translation Panel, refreshments and networking

- 13.30 Dr Heide Kunzelmann (University of Kent) and Dr Ruth Martin (University of Kent) will lead a translation panel examining First World War documents

Session 4: German & Austrian Experiences of the War 2

- 14.30 Yvonne Cresswell (Manx National Heritage) - Internment on the Isle of Man
15.15 Professor Matthew Stibbe (Sheffield Hallam University) - Researching internees in Austria and Germany
16:00 Event finishes