STAGE SCREEN AND TRENCH

A SUSSEX STORY OF WORLD WAR I

A touring exhibition uncovering forgotten stories of Sussex's Edwardian film and entertainment personalities during WWI; those behind the camera for the groundbreaking 1916 movie 'The Battle Of The Somme' and the real life inspiration for the 1960s satire 'Oh! What A Lovely War'

See the display!

Explore the touchscreen Mini Kinema!

A unique glimpse of a lost world where pierrots really did play a part in the conflict and when the world's first documentary war film was being made.
