

PLEASURE, PRIVILEGE, PRIVATIONS

LOFTHOUSE PARK NEAR WAKEFIELD
1908-1922

An exhibition exploring the British and German history of a forgotten site between Leeds and Wakefield

28 APRIL - 7 JULY 2018

Wakefield One, Burton Street, Wakefield, WF1 2DD

Join us on 28 April 2018 for opening talks and activities
(programme overleaf)

PROGRAMME FOR 28 APRIL 2018

11AM - 3.30PM

-
- 11.00 Exhibition Opening and Book Launch
Claudia Sternberg and David Stowe
- 12.00 The History of Lofthouse Park: The War Years, 1914-1919
David Stowe (Talk, Learning Zone, 30 mins)
- 12.45 The German Butchers of Wakefield and Vicinity
Karl-Heinz Wüstner (Talk, Learning Zone, 30 mins)
- 1.30 Family Narratives Zine Making
Louise Atkinson (2-hour workshop, no need to sign up, meet at 'Family Narratives of Being German in Yorkshire' display)
- Visitors are invited to make small magazines exploring their own family histories. Please feel free to bring printouts of photographs or other materials you would like to include.
- 12-3.30 Children's Activities
Children's section of the Library
- Opportunities for younger children to engage with the themes of the exhibition, offered by students from the University of Leeds.

FURTHER EVENTS

Monday, 11 June 2018, 5.30-6.30pm (Learning Zone)

Time Stood Still in Wakefield: Introducing Paul Cohen-Portheim
and his Lofthouse Park Memoir

Saturday, 16 June, 2-2.45pm (starts at title panel)

Guided tour through the Lofthouse Park exhibition

School workshops or visits upon request, please contact c.sternberg@leeds.ac.uk

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE