Fortress Dover Explainer Volunteer
Role Description

Why does English Heritage need my support?
We need volunteers to welcome visitors to a unique part of Dover Castle, interpreting and giving tours of the Fire Command Post and Port War Signal Station, a building that played a vital role in protecting Dover. You will tell its story to our visitors and encourage them to explore the area. The main focus will be the First World War.

How much time will I be expected to give?
We have sessions available from 11am – 3pm on Saturdays and Sundays throughout the main season.

Where will I be based?
Dover Castle
Kent
CT16 1HU

What will I be doing?
You will be the first point of contact for visitors to the building and as such you will need to:
- Be friendly and approachable to all visitors
- Provide a high level of customer service
- Deal with visitor queries or direct them to an appropriate member of staff;
- Answer questions from visitors and offer information where appropriate regarding the Fire Command Post and Port War Signal Station, their appearance, development and contents.

For security purposes you will also need to:
- Understand and implement safety procedures including evacuation
- Maintain a level of visitor supervision

What skills, qualities and experience do I need?
We are looking for a confident, effective communicator and team player who has a positive attitude to working with visitors to enhance their visit.

What support and training will I receive?
In preparation for the role and with our support you will need to develop an understanding of the history of the site, together with significant features and artefacts.

Full training will be provided by English Heritage and it will include:
- Familiarisation with site and staff
- Health and Safety Training
- Role-specific training with relevant staff
- English Heritage customer service training
- 2-Way radio training
